THE BODY BORNE TO THE WHITE HOUSE WITH MILITARY HONORS.

BISHOP HURST CONDUCTS THE SERVICES_DIPLO-MATIC AND OFFICIAL CIRCLES TURN OUT

matic and official circles turn out in more expectable of the second of the dead secretary did not be suspensed to the second of the second of roses, rhododendrons and manager and the wreath sent long white silk ribbon attached. The wreath sent by the Diplomatic Corps consisted of orchids, lilies of the vailey, ascension lilies, carnations and American Beauty roses, with a large white ribbon on which, in gold letters, was stamped, "From the Diplomatic Corps." Colonel John M. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson sent a wreath of red roses, Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller hall upon the bier two large sago palm leaves. From General Gresham's compage of the Army of the Tennessee were received as clear of the corps.

United States flag was displayed. It formed the drapery for the four saloon mirrors over the manand curtained the great, tall windows. Palms and oleanders, smilax and ferns, with many cut flowers, were placed in every alcove, nook and cranny of the chamber.

The body reached the Executive Mansion at 9:40 c'clock. Mrs. Gresham was too ill to accompany it. She fainted repeatedly, and was at last removed to her private apartments, where she remained until started for the railway station. As the coffin was borne out of the hotel, the President and his Cabinet formed in double column as a guard of honor on each side. The body-bearers were eight stalwart sergeants of the 4th Artillery. They were commanded by Captain Charles B. Hall, of the 17th

The members of the family who accompanied th cortége to the White House were Otto Gresham, his sister, Mrs. Andrews, and her husband, and Captain and Mrs. Fuller, the latter being Mrs. When the President and his Cabinet stepped within the porte-cochère of the White House they again formed a double line, between which the coffin, followed by the members of the family, passed. simple funeral services assembled in the East Room. The Japanese Minister, Mr. Kurino, and his suit were the first to arrive. By the time the body reached the White House, every seat, except those reserved for the President and his Cabinet, was filed. The coffin was placed in the extreme south end of the room, with the head toward the south. each end was a tall maiden-hair paim, whose spreading branches shaded the catafalque. The effect was simple, but appropriate. About the coffin were placed great wreaths of roses, red and white, while attached to its side was a floral representation of the badge adopted by the Army Corps to which Mr. Gresham belonged, the familiar "Forty Rounds" done in blue, red and yellow It was 19:10 o'clock when the funeral party reached the White House, and the short wait until the services began was most impressive. At one end of the room, made into a living garden by its palms and oleanders and other growing plants, was the coffin, surrounded by the many tributes of friends and associates of the late Secretary Around it were gathered representatives of the foreign nations with which the United States maintains diplomatic relations, nearly all in uniforms of brilliant hue, marked and slashed with thick bands of gold lace. Prominent among them were Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Ambassador, Lady Pauncefote and Miss Pauncefote; the French Ambassador and Mme. Patenôtre, and the Italian Ambassador and Baroness Fava. The three ranking officers of the corps were in court uniforms. Near by sat Baron Clemens von Ketteler, Chargé d'Affaires of the German Embassy, who represented his Govern ment. At right angles to these sat the other members of the Diplomatic Corps, filling the front rows in the long lines of chairs extending from the offin to the other end of the room.

Many distinguished persons were seated elsewhere in the room. The Justices of the Supreme Court sat on the side of the coffin opposite and facing the Ambassadors. The Supreme Court circle was composed of Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, Justice Shiras, Justice Field, Justice and Mrs. Gray. Others present were Senators Gray, Morgan and Stewart Assistant Secretaries Hamlin and Wike, of the Treasury; McAdoo, of the Navy: Doe, of the War Department; Adee and Rockhill, and every official and employe of the State Department; Controller Eckels, and the bureau chiefs of the War and Navy departments, all in their uniforms as Army and Navy officers. Exactly at 10 o'clock the services began. A minute or two before that hour Colonel John W. Wilson, master of ceremonies, informed the President that all was ready, and then led the way from the Blue Room to the East Room. Immediately behind him came the President, with Mrs. Cleveland leaning on his arm, becomingly attired in a morning gown of crepon. Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle, Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Attorney-General and Mrs. Olney. Postmaster-General and Mrs. Wilson, Secretary and Miss Norton followed, with Secretary Herbert, Secretary Smith and Acting Secretary Uhl bringing up the rear. The Presidential party was seated at the head of the coffin. In the adjoining Green Room the members of the Gresham family were seated.

With great impressiveness, Bishop Hurst began With great impressiveness, Bishop Hurst began the funeral service, which was conducted according to the manner of the Methodist Episcopal Church. "I am the resurrection and the life," he began, and continued through the appropriate chapters of Scripture assigned for such solemn occasions. His clear tones could be heard in every part of the large room. When he had finished a quartet of male voices, composed of Messra Mosher, Morsell, Kayser and Hoover, sang "Lead, Kindly Light," and then Bishop Hurst concluded the simple ceremonies by reading the prayers appropriate to the occasion. When he had spoken the last words he turned toward his audience and invited them to view the body of the dead Secretary, and as the people arose to take advantage of the invitation, the President and Mrs. Cleveland withdrew, followed by the Cabinet party. Nearly all present passed around the coffin. At 11 o'clock the services were concluded, and the last look at the dead Secretary was taken. The

H. C. Corbin, Major W. P. Hall, Major J. C. Muhlenberg, Captain Crosky Miller, Captain C. W.
Whipple, Captain Rogers Birney, Captain G. J.
Fieberger and Lieutenant J. Y. Mason Blunt.
The military forces consisted of four troups of the 6th Cavairy from Fort Meyer, Va.; five companies of artillery from the Washington Barracks, and the Marine Corps, under Colonel Heywood.
While the military were in line waiting the order to fall in, Captain Whipple, of the Ordnance Bareau of the War Department, one of General Rureau of the War Department of the May of the State of the War Department of the War Department of General Rureau of the War Department of the War Department white the minury were to fall in, Captain Whipple, of the Ordnance Bureau of the War Department, one of General Ruger's staff, was prostrated by a slight stroke of apoplexy. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital, and subsequently recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home.

The decorations of the East Room, where the funeral services were held, were exceedingly beautiful. The floral offering of the President and Mrs. Cleveland was a large wreath of orchids, white roses, rhododendrons and maiden-hair ferns, with a long white slik ribbon attached. The wreath sent looked like the beginning of the end. By 8 o'clock he was in a state of collapse. His pulse was almost imperceptible. We had been administering stimulants to keep up the action of the heart. After 9 o'clock he failed rapidly, and died at 1.1 by the Diplomatic Corps consisted of orchids, illies a large American flag and the emblem of the corps constructed of immortelles. The Department of State sent a wreath of red and white roses, illes of the She was the last he speke with ar looked to; hers ont a wreath of red and white roses, lilles of the wife. He talked with her until the last mone she was the last he spoke with or looked to, he was the last hand he pressed; her face the last saw."

MISS DODGE SINKING RAPIDLY.

SHE IS NOW UNABLE TO TAKE NOURISHMEN

AND THE END IS EXPECTED SOON. Washington, May 29.-Miss Mary Abigail Dodge is sinking rapidly, and her physician does not think she can last another twenty-four hours. She is not now able to take food of any kind.

Washington, May 23 (Special).—The following army orders have been issued: The extension of leave of Captain Solomon W. Roessler, Corps of Engineer, surgeon's certificate of disability. Second Lieuten ant Raiph H. Van Deman, 21st Infantry, is transferred from Company K to Company C of that ferred from Company K to Company C of that sure of the correctness of these figures. As there regiment, Major Isaac Arnold, jr., Ordnanes Dewas no insurance on the vessel it will be a total partment, will proceed from West Troy, N. Y. he works of Pond Machine Tool Company, Plain field, N. J., on official business pertaining to th tion of sixteen-inch gun lathes, and upon the completion thereof will return to his proper statio The unexpired portion of the extension of leave of absence granted First Lieutenant Lorenzo P. Daviabsence grantes first Lectionar Local Parts on, IIII Infantry, on February 16, 1886, is rescinded and he will report to the commanding officer. Whippie Barracks, Arizona Territory, for duty. The leave of absence on surgeon's critificate of disability granted First Lieutenant De Rossey C. Cabed, 8th Cavalry, on January 21, 1886, is extended two months on surgeon's certificate of disability.

PITTSPERG RIDS FOR THE CONVENTION.

Pittsburg, May 29.—This city is making a strong bid for the Republican National Convention of 1896. "The Times" has started a guarantee fund of $100,000 to defray expenses. All the newspapers and business men are making every effort possible for the convention, and much encouragement has been re-ceived from National Committeemen in favor of Pittsburg.

SENATOR SHERMAN AT ZANESVILLE.

SPEAKING AS ONE HAVING AUTHORITY From The Springfield Union.

From The Springfield Union.

John Sherman speaks as one having authority and if Republicans anywhere have feared that the foundations of Republican financial policy were being broken up, we hope they will take couragifrom the great Republican leader in finance. He is not a gold bug nor a sliver bug neither in good monometallist nor a sliver bug neither in good monometallist nor a sliver monometallist, but a sound-money Republican, who knows what he he neves in, and what the Republican party can and will dewien intrusted with the financial affairs of the Nation.

A SAFE GUIDE FOR THE PARTY.

From The Bultimore American.

Senator Sherman's speech as chairman of the Oblo Republican Convention probably outlines the policy of his party in the struggle of 1895. The Senator would as soon abjure his religion as to advise the repudiation of a single obligation of the Government, and he knows very well that free sliver coinage, no matter how specious may be the pleas of its advocates, would be repudiation. But the significant point in Senator Sherman's speech is the declaration that there must be a revision of the tariff policy of the Government in accordance with American interests. The only good features of the present system are those horrowed from Republican legsistation. From The Baltimore American.

STILL FOREMOST IN FINANCE,

From The Mall and Express From the Mail and Express.

Senator Sherman has sounded the keynote of the great campaign between honest money and Populistic theories which will be on us next year. The leader of 1805 and 1856 is the leader still.

OHIO REPUBLICANS SOUND ON THE GREAT

ISSUES. From The Utica Herald.

From The Utica Herald.

The Republican party has stood always for sound money, for a dollar of 100 cents, whether of gold, silver or of paper. It is the Nation's anchor to-day, holding true against all basts, whether from Populists and Democrats without or its mining-camp associates within Ohlo Benublicans, responding to the counsels of their wise statesmen and master of dinance, have no false notes in their voice on the great issues of the day—Protection and sound currency.

THE SENATOR'S ADDRESS THE KEYNOTE, From The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

He (Senator Sherman) gave the keynote to the convention as regards the principles and policy of the party, holding up before the Committee on Resolutions a safe chart to follow in formulating the platform.

NOT A FANATICAL HATER OF BILVER. From The Hartford Courant,

From the Hariford Courant,
Yet the old ex-Secretary of the Treasury is no fanatical hater of sliver. Not at all. He avows, himself a bimetallist of the conservative, safschool—the school to which Benjamin Harrison belongs. He would be glad to see the coinage of silver resumed on both slides of the Atlantic under an international agreement.

A STRAIGHTFORWARD SPEECH. From The Phi adelphia Inquirer.

Senator Sherman's speech on the currency question goes from the shoulder to the centre of the target without even the deviation of an inch. On this, as on all other affairs of genuine importance, good old Uncle John always knows where he is at.

is occupied by the company, there were no applications from relatives or friends of the passen-gers or officers and crew of the lost steamship for information, but there was a depressing air of gloom in the offices of the superintendent and others at the pier, and the officers of the City of Para, loading for Colon, and to sail to-mor-row, discussed the disaster with sadness. The row, discussed the disaster with sadness. The superintendent was absent when a Tribune reporter called at his office, and the general passenger agent knew nothing of the personnel or history of the Colima's officers, crew or passengers. Captain James L. Lockwood, of the City of Para, his first officer, surgeon and engineers were absent, and the second officer could give no information.

Purson F. C. Aveny of the City of Para, said:

neers were absent, and the second give no information.

Purser E. C. Avery, of the City of Para, said:

'I do not think the Collma ever ran on this side of the isthmus, but that she went around the Horn right after she was launched by John Roach & Sons, at Philadelphia, and has been running on the west coast ever since. Captain J. F. Taylor, who commanded the Collma, was I think, a native of California. He was a short thick-set man, about fifty years old. He had commanded the Collma about two years, but had been in the line a much loager time, and was regarded as a trustworthy and capable commander.

ommander.
Cirst Officer D. E. Griffiths, until about five "First Officer I. E. Grinner, when she can in the old United States and Brazil Steamship Line, which is new out of exand leaves a wife and two children in San Francisco. He was one of the oldest pursers in the line. I was his freight clerk, running on the west coast in 1882. He was a fine man, and highly regarded by the company and all who knew him.

"The chief steward of the Colima was a colored man, named Soith. That is all I know on the subject. Our news is meagre, and we are all waiting anxiously for more complete particulars, which we hope will show that the loss of life is which we hope will show that to far less than has been reported."

ITS STOCK APPEATED BY THE NEWS OF THE DIS

ASTER-OFFICERS ELECTED YESTERDAY. The Pacific Mail Steamship Company was organized in 1848 and in 1855 it was in a condition which warranted the declaration of its first dividend. Yesterday it held its annual meeting in this city, and the estimated earnings and expenses for the year ending April 20, 1805, were as follows: Gross receipts, 34.05,812, total expenses, $1.75.240. The net gain over the previous year was $23,75.240. The present officers of the company are C. P. Hontington, president, R. P. Schwerin, vice-president tent and general manager; W. H. Lane, secretary, and Joseph Hellen, treasurer. The directors elected yesterday were C. P. Huntington, Henry Hart, Isaac E. Gates, Calvin S. Brice, General Samuel Thomas, Joseph Richardson, Russell Sage, George J. Gould and R. P. Schwerm, Joseph Richardson, succeeded Edward Lautertach on the board of directors.

The capital of the company is $20,000,000 and its steamers are valued at $1,98,674. The vessels owned and operated by the company are the City of Sydney. City of New-York, City of Panama, City of Rio de Janeiro, City of Para, Acapulco, Colon, San José, San Juan, San Blas, Clyde, Costa Rica, Newport, San Juan, San Has, Clyde, Costa Rica, Newport, Starbuck, China, Barracouta, Colombia and Peru. The company lost a vessel off the costs of Japan several years ago, and the City of Peking, belonging to the company, was wrecked a few years ago in the Pacific. Its value was $763,57.

The vessels of this company run from New York to Colon, from Denama to way ports on the Pacific.

loast and to San Francisco, and from San Francisco to Japan and China.

The Colima was valued at about $435.000; at least that was the valuation the officers of the company in this city placed upon her, but they were not to the company. The company followed the old employed by some corporations of insurts own property, which does not work so well use of less as it does of paper.

P. Huntington, the president of the comsailed for Europe less week, and the only vitys officer of the company in this city was Lane, the secretary. He could give no definite mation regarding the vessel, its officers or The directors of the company who live in city were all seen, but they were as much e dark as the general public.

crew. The directors of the company who live to this city were all seen, but they were as much in the dark as the general public.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Line had the monopoly of the New York and San Francisco business by the way of the Isthmus of Panama. When the news of the wreck was amounted yesterday the price of the securities of the Pacific Mail Steamship tompany on the Stock Exchange declined from 23% to 25% and closed at a net loss of by per cent. Over 4.09 shares of the company were sold.

GREAT LOSS OF LIES.

year 1995 has already been distinguished by the number of steamship disasters that have oc-curred, and the great loss of life that has been caused by them. The first of importance since the North German Lloyd Line, plying between New York and Bremen. She left Bremen January 2) bound for Southampton and New-York, with bound for Southampton and New-York, with 6 cabin passengers, 1% eterrage passengers and a crew of 100 men. On the marning of the 30th, in a heavy fog, she was struck in the North Sea by the steamer Crainle, and sank in twenty minutes. There was difficulty in lumbing the lifebours, and a terrible panic prevailed on board the Elbe. Only one lifebour, containing twenty and provided on the containing the state of the containing twenty as a containing twenty as a containing twenty and the state of the containing twenty as a containing the lifebont, containing twenty-two persons, fourteen being members of the crew, escaped, the rest of the passengers and crew, 37s in number, went down on the steamer or were swamped in the lifeboats. The survivors were picked up by a fishing schooner and were landed in England.
The big Ohlo River passenger steamer State of Missouri was sunk near Alton, Ind., on the night of Missouri was sunk hear Alsai, Ind., on the night of January 19, and eighteen lives were lost. She ran between Cheimati and Memphis. At Alton the river is narrow, and the high water caused an extremely swift current, in which the pilot lost control of the steamer. She struck a rock and was sunk in fifty feet of water. There was a serious panie on board; reveral beats were launched and panle on board; several boats were launched and were swamped, but all the women who were among the possengers were sared.

The Spanish wars, I; Reins Regenta was sunk, with all on board, near the Spanish coast, in the Mediterranean Sea, about the middle of last March. She left Tangier on March 19, bound for 'addix, with a crew of 429 men abourd. A terrile storm prevalled on that day and the two succeeding days. On March 15 has sinh was seen for the last time by the British ship Marfale, laboring heavily in the stormy sea, with Origin and finness gone. No assistance, however, was asked, but the Reins Regenta and her crew were never heard of again. The Reina Regenta was one of the men-of-war that represented the Spanish Navy at the maval celebration in New-York Harbor in the spring of 1893, the others being the infanta Yeabel and the Neuva Espans.

cheers being the filling a pales and the New Arisana on Monday last, the same day that the Collina foundered off the Mexican creent, another terrible disaster of the same nature occurred off the coast of Spain, when the French steamer Dom Pedro was lost by the explesion of her boller, after striking a rock. The vessel sank in a few moments, with large loss of life. The steamer carried seventy-six passengers and fifty-four officers and crew, of whom cighty-nine are reported to have been lost. These were mostly Italian, Belgian and Swiss emigrants, bound for South America.

SAN FRANCISCO ASKS FOR INFORMATION. The Merchants' Exchange of San Francisco tele-graphed to the New-York Maritime Exchange, "Wire us promptly about loss of steamer Colima," which was thought to indicate that the reported loss of the Colima had not then been confirmed in San Francisco. But Mr. Lane, the secretary of the company, said later that a telegram had been received from their San Francisco office confirming the news of the loss of the vessel. The dispatch said that the news had been brought to Man-zantilo by a boatload of people, who had escaped. Nothing was known of the number lost or of the cause of the accident. Mr. Lane thought ft hardly possible that only one boatload had escaped, and looked for early news of other boats,

The addresses given in the dispatches of a number of cabin and steerage passengers who were hearse drove up, and a bucle-cail from the avenue agained in the troops to fall in line.

The soleum murch down the avenue to the rail-road station was most impressive. All the executive departments were closed out of respect to the order of march was this. Captain Austin and a signal of mounted police, 6th Cavairy band, Troops B. E and G of the 6th Cavairy. Connel G. S. Gordon, Connel Reyard commanding. General Ruger and his staff, three batteries of the 4th Artillery and one of the 2th Artillery Colonel Closson commanding. Martiller particle Battalion, Colonel Heyward commanding. The family of the dead Secretary did not accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel. Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel. Mrs. Gresham regained her composure somewhat before starting to the station. The family of the dead Secretary did not accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel. Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession but drove directly to the station from the hotel Mrs. Gresham in his accompany the procession readed her composition of the directly to the station

DID THIEVES KILL HARRIS?

THE POLICE INTERESTED BY DITT-MEIER'S STORY.

STATEMENT MADE BY A SNEAK THIEF ARRESTED TUESDAY REGARDED AS A CLEW-WHERE

WITH THE SCARRED FACE? The police had decided to their own satisfaction yesterday that the murderer of Ferdinand Harris, M. C. D. Borden's colored butler, was a white man, and was probably a sneak thief. At the same time, however, Acting Captain Steinkamp, of the East Fifty-first-st, police station, admitted that no particular person was suspected, and that the probabilities of an arrest being made soon were small.

All that was learned during the day of any value to work on was taken from a statement made by Dittmeler, one of the two sneak thieves arrested on Tuesday by Pollceman Henry Breem, with the proceeds of two robberies committed near the scene of the murder, upon them. Anything from Dittmeter, under the circumstances, is untrustworthy and his statement was accepted with a full appre ciation of the conditions under which he made it.

Briefly, it is to the effect that on Tuesday he met a man named "Mike," slightly built, with a sandy mustache, who had been in prison for highway robbery. "Mike" introduced him to a tall man whose face was badly scarred, and he held a bag while the other two opened the front window of Dr. Dissell's house and handed out all the valuables they could lay their hands on. As his share of the booty. Dittmeler received a silver card case, and the three sauntered to Mr. London's house, No. 42 East Fiftieth-st., which they entered as they had Dr. Bisseli's, in broad daylight. On emerging, Policeman Breem put in an appearance and he (Ditte-meler) was seized, while "Mike" and the tall man took to their heels and escaped.

On this statement the police have built up a theory that the murder was committed by "Mike" theory that the murici was exemutic robbery ex-or the tall man while on a systematic robbery ex-pedition, and they are scouring the city for two men resembling the two described by Dittmeler. Dittmeler himself, at the request of the detectives, has been remanded by Justice Ryan, and the strongest efforts are being made to find out all he knows.

The efforts of the detectives met with no success yesterday. At midnight Detective Sergeant Perazzo, who was in charge of the Detective Bergau at Police Hendquarters, said that no new arrests had been made by the Headquarters force in the case and at the East Fifty first et. station, Acting Captain Steinkamp confessed that his own men were equally at a loss for a clew.

CONGREGATION FOTES TO DISEAND.

RESULT OF THE TROUBLE IN ST. LUKE'S METHO

St. Luke's Methodts: Episcopal Church, Marcy ave and Penn-st., Brooklyn, for several weeks. Last night, at a meeting, it was decided by a majority vote to disband. The origin of the trouble was the opposition to the Rev. William H. Boole, of Prohibition Park, Staten Island, becoming pastor of the church, on the part of some of the members. The pulpit of the church has been vacant for several weeks, since the Rev. William H. Hubbell resigned. Last night William Clark moved that the church disband, in view of the fact that the Brooklyn Church Society had refused to pay to the church Reb which it promised and because the conference had refused to send a man to the church to preach who could do good. The motion was carried aimost according.

EXCLUDED FROM THE MAILS.

UNION," IN TROUBLE OVER A SCHEME RI SEMBLING A LOTTERY.

Postmaster Dayton received an order from Washington on Tuesday informing him that "The Church Union," a religious paper published by Mrs. Elizabeth B. Grannis, at No. 31 East Twentysecond-st. in this city, was unmailable on account of an advertisement which violated the lottery law. Mr. Gayler, the assistant postmaster, secured a copy of "The Church Union" containing the obnoxious advertisement, and gave orders to exclude from the mails all copies of the paper containing the Contributing editors of "The Church Union" are Wete sold.

OTHER STEAMSHIP DISASTERS IN 1895.

A BAD RECORD FOR THE YEAR ALREADY, WITH are presumed not to have had any knowledge of the offensive advertisement, which fills an entire page of the paper and shows that an attempt was made to increase the number of subscribers by a lottery scheme. The advertisement described prizes, said to worth about $2,900, and declared that they would be worth about $2.99, and declared that they would be sent to subscribers according to a plan which was essentially a lottery. The plan was to number each new subscription to the paper as it was received through the malls, and to said the first prize for the subscription numbered 109, the second prize for the subscription numbered 109, the second prize for the subscription numbered 109, and so on. The attention of Attorney-General Thomas was called to the advertisement, and be immediately decided that it was a lattery scheme. It was at the suggestion of the Attorney-General that the order was sent to Postmaster Dayton.

Mrs. Grannis said last evening that she was extremely sorty the advertisement had appeared, as she was opposed to lotterles in any form. She had been overworked lately on account of the preparations for opening an industrial home in which she is interested, and she consented to a proposition to lighten her labor on "The Church Union" by giving to the Rev. Henry Hudson, of Long Island, the temporary place of managing editor.

Mr. Hudson got up the plan to increase the circulation of the paper by the offer of prizes, and preparated the advertisement in question. He spoke to Mrs. Grannis about II, she says, and assured her that It was not a lattery. She slid not read the advertisement before it was published. The entire issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the new scheme. She said last evening that the advertisement would not appear again, and that in the next issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the tenter issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the tenter issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the tenter issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the tenter issue of the paper had been mailed before Mrs. Graninks understood the real meaning of the tenter issue of

NATIONAL CHARITIES CONFERENCE.

New-Haven, May 29. The National Conference of Charities and Corrections decided this afternoon that the next convention should be held in Grand For Massachusetts. Rhods Island and Connecticut, fair. Rapids, Mich. In the evening the Committee on Organization reported the following officers for the coming year: President, A. C. Wright, Wisconsin; e-presidents, Professor Francis Wayland, New-Haven: L. L. Barbour, Michigan; Mrs. C. R. Lowed, New-York; Archbishop Ireland, of Minnesota, and D. C. Gilman, of Johns Hopkins University; secretaries, E. P. Bicknell, Indiana; J. H. Gabriel, Colorado; J. P. Byers, Ohlo; J. J. Keiso, Canada; W. T. Raiph, Kentucky; Mrs. F. C. Lee, Michigan; treasurer, J. M. Glenn, Michigan; official reporter and editor, Mrs. Gabriells C. Barrows, Massachusetts.

CORPORATION TAX RETURNS.

a great interest in the operations of the Corpora-tion-tax Department of his office, has prepared a statement, showing the collection of taxes from corporations. When he came into office on January 1, 1894, there were 2,152 corporations on the books as Hable to pay the tax. During the year ending September 20, 1834, 775 corporations that had never before been assessed were added to the list never before been assessed were added to the list and paid $25,177. Since the first of October, 1894, additional corporations to the number of 506 have been placed upon the taxbooks and have paid $193, 598, thus making a total of $43,958 collected since January 1, 1894, from corporations that had hitherto escaped faxation. In addition to this, 585 new corporations have been assessed this year, which have not yet paid their tax, but are about to do so. The total capital-stock tax collected during the fiscal year ending September $20, 1893, was $1,657,222. Up to the present time, eight months out of the twelve of the theal year, there have been collected from this tax $1,152,555, showing an increase already of $35,000 over the entire amount collected during the last fiscal year.

OBITUARY.

LEANDER WILLIAMS.

Leander Williams, one of the best-known citizens of Orange, N. J., died yesterday morning at his home in Hillyer-st., from heart trouble after an illness of two weeks. He was a son of the late Job Williams and was born on November 7, 1828, in the old family homestead on the site now occupied by the North Orange Baptist Church. After receiving a common school education he entered the hat fac-tory of his father and became an expert workman. His great desire was to obtain a college education, and he saved $500 to use for the purpose and began his preparation at the school conducted by the Rev. David H. Pierson, of Elizabeth. After studying for a year, the failure of his father compelled an aban-donment of his plan and a return to business. He started in business for himself and was a successful hat manufacturer until 1866. He then spent several years in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad and in 1878 was appointed agent for the Pennsylvania Raliroad and opened a real-estate office in Orange. Mr. Williams in his earlier life was a leader of the Republican party in Orange. Before the disintegration of the Oranges e was town clerk for seventeen years. When Orange was incorporated as a city, he was elected to the common Council from the First Ward for three years. He served as justice of the peace and was appointed street commissioner. He did important work for the city as street commissioner, for he succeeded in demonstrating the practicability of macadam roads in the vicinity, causing the laying of the first bit of macadamized road in New-Jersey. Cone-st, from Main-st, to the Delaware and Lackawanna Railroad. Mr. Williams was prominent in the Masonic fraternity. He was a member of Union the Masonic Fraternity. He was a member of Union Lodge F, and A. M., a charter member and past master of Corinthian Lodge, and also a member 2' Orange Chapter No. 23 R. A. M. in which he reached the place of king. He was twice married. His first wife was Emily Smith, daughter of Daniel Smith, by whom he had five children, four of whom are living. His children are Frank, Robert P., Walter R, and Edgar Williams, the latter Editor and proprietor of "The Orange Journal."

CARDINAL LUIGI RUFFO-SCILLA. Rome, May 29.—Cardinal Luigi Ruffo-Scilla died in this city to-day. He was born in 1849, and was created a Cardinal in 1891.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Utlen, N. Y., May 29 .- J. Milton Butler, of the clothing manufacturing fitta of Roberts, Butler & Co., died suddenly of apoplexy this morning, aged Burlington, N. J., May 29.-Dr. Edward S. Lansing, one of the oldest medical practitioners in this city, died this morning after a lingering illness. Lansing was born at Albany, N. Y., July 29, He served as Councilman, and also held other es in the city. He leaves a widow and family of adult children.

Pittsburg, May 29.—Thomas B. Atterbury, the head of the widely known Atterbury glass firm, died at his East End home to-day in his sixty-fourth year. He was connected with a number of industrial and financial institutions. He leaves a widow and four children.

RAILROAD INTERESTS.

TRYING TO OUTWIT THE SCALPERS. St. Louis, May D.-As the result of an agreement reached yesterday by the Chicago and Alton, Waoash, Vandalia and the Illinois Central, the passenger rate between East St. Louis and Chicago has been reduced from $7.25 to $4. This rate, which applies in both directions and over all lines, will remain in force until all danger of scalpers manipulating excursion tickets is passed.

THEIR OLD AGREEMENT RENEWED. Chicago, May 29 .- At a meeting to-day the members of the Western freight pool entered into an agreement, which is virtually the same as the old one. It is for one year, and can only be broken by giving sixty days' notice from March 21, 1896. The agreement provides that in the event of a dispreement the matter in dispute is to be referred o a committee of three, the chairman to be one of the committee. All day was spent trying to adjust matters by arbitration, especially the claims made by the Missouri Pacific for a larger percentage, but the matter was not fixed, and will be taken up again to-morrow. The Iron Mountain taken up again to-morrow. The Iron Mountain Road suspended the notice given Tuesday to withdraw from the pool if its claims were not allowed. The only new feature of the agreement is that of reference to a committee, and in the future, if differences cannot be adjusted, it will be the same old story, and the pool will break up. Another meeting will be held to-morrow morning to consider some passenger matters, and the matter of rates to the Ohio and lower Mississippi territory.

GOOD EIDDANCE TO MATHEMATICS. THE COLUMBIA SOPHOMORES HAVE A PROCES.

SION AND BURN EFFICIES. UDED TROM THE MAILS.

GRANNIES PAPER. THE CHURCH INSTALLS OVER A SCHEME RESEMBLING A LOTTERY

The sophomores of Columbia College celebrated their annual victory over mathematics last night in good Columbia style. Students to the number of 100, can in white garments, descripted either with a 100, can in white garments, descripted either with a 100, can in white garments, descripted either with a 100, can in white garments, descripted the transfer of the sophs and started from the college down Mailson-ave, preceded by a band. In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam of the college down Mailson-ave, preceded by a band. In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam private.

In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam of the private.

In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam of the private.

In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam of the private.

In the centre of the crowd was a blow with a steam of the private.

In the sophomores of Columbia College celebrated the force annual victory over mathematics last night in produced. The solid private is the residence, West News Pilos. C. Theodore Pine, at his residence, West News Pilos. Theodore Pine, at his residence, we have pilos. Theodore Pine, at his residence, West News Pilos. Theodore Pine, at his residence, we have pilos. Theodore Pine at his residence, we have pilos of the pilos In the centre of the crowd was a bler with a straw efficy representing Legendre, as the spirit of mathematics, stretched upon it. The procession marched down Madison-ave., through Thirty-fourth-st. and up Fifth-ave, to the college campus, where a stand had been prepared for the speakers of the evening. By this time a crowd of several hundred people had collected, including many women, amid cheers for '96 and '97. The speakers told the crowd that for % and %. The speakers told the crowd that the students were assembled to cremate those instructors who for the last two years had afflicted them with mathematics. The first victim, Professor Van Amrige, a general favorite, was burned, because it was the custom, and moreover because he was head of the department of mathematics and the head of all the instructors as dean of the School of Arts.

The procession was then reformed and marched to a lot at Seventy-third-st, and the Boulevard. A were was kindled and the coffin and the efficies were east into the flames.

-CHILDREN TRAMPLED ON BY A HORSE. Philadelphia, May 29.—The most exciting runaway that has ever occurred in Philadelphia took place this afternoon during a flag-raising at the Em Primary School. A maddened horse 4ashed through a crowd of adults and little children and trampled affection of the latter under foot. Providentially no ninetsen of the l

THE WEATHER REPORT

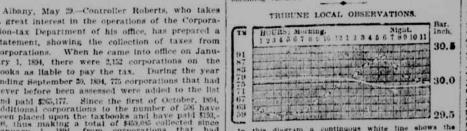

TWO AREAS OF HIGH PRESSURE.

Washington, May 28. An area of high pressure covers the districts east of the Mississippi River, and a second high area covers the Rocky Mountain districts. A storm of molecule intensity is central in Ohlahoma and a second storm has developed much of Montara. The barom and storm has developed math of Montara. The barom-eter has risen in all districts except in the Middle At-lantic States, the rise being rapid in the Missouri Valley. The temperature has risen in all districts cost of the Mississippi and the Rocky Mountain plateau, it has fallen in the Missouri Valley and on the southern Rocky Moun-tain slope. Bain has fallen in the Guif States and the lower Mississippi Valley. Cocasional showers have oc-curred on the Booky Mountain slope and the Pacific Coast. Pain is indicated for the Guif States and the middle Mississippi Valley, and the weather will be fair in the other districts. Warmer weather is indicated for New-Fingings, the Atlantic Closer and the Rocky Mountain States, and cooler weather for the central valleys.

DETAILED FORECAST FOR TO-DAY. For Maton, New-Hampshire and Vermont, fair; warmer, carmer; southwesterly winds. For Eastern New-York, fair; warmer; southerly winds. For Bastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey, fair; warmer, For the District of Columbia, Delaware and Maryland.

continued warm, fair weather, southerly winds, For Virginia, fair; coder in western portion; southerly For West Virginia, fair; ocoler in western portion; southerly winds.
For Western Pennsylvania and Western New-York, fair; warmer; seuthwesterly winds.
For Ohio, fair, followed by increasing cloudiness on Thursday night; cooler, southwesterly winds.
For Indiana, fair, except showers in extreme southern portion; cooler in northern portion; southwesterly winds, becoming variable.

In this diagram a continuous white line shows the changes in pressure as indicated by The Tribune's self-recording barometer. The dotted line represents the temperature recorded at Perry's Pharmacy.

Tribune Office, May 30, 1 a. m.-The weather yesterday was clear and warm. The temperature ranged between 50 and 88 degrees, the average (72%) being 10% degrees higher than on Tuesday and 15% degrees higher than on the corresponding day last year.

The weather to-day is likely to be fair and warmer. JOHN H. STARIN INJURED.

HE FALLS AND SPRAINS HIS KNEE AT GLEN

ISLAND-FEARS THAT HE MAY BE LAME FOR LIFE.

John II. Starin was seriously injured at Glea Island yesterday morning. The doctors who attended him immediately after his injury and up to the time he was taken to New-York, fear he may be lame for life as a result of the mishap. On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Starin went to Glen Island to look over the work in progress there in anticipation of the opening of the season. He spent the night at one of the cottages. Vesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, he left the cottage to start for ing, about 9 o'clock, he left the cottage to start for New-York. As he was descending the gangplank to the boat plying between Glen Island and the mainland he slipped and sprained his knee. He fainted, and was carried to the cottage. Two doctors were summoned from New-Rochelle. They relieved the pain, and word was sent to Pier No. 18. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon one of Mr. Starin's loats arrived at Glen Island to bring him to this city.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS. BRUNSWICK-Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, and Lieutenant-Governor J. A. Chapieau, of Quebec, CLARENDON-Edward J. Phelps, formerly United States Minister to Eng-Facility of Chicago. EV-ERETT—Professor J. Howard Biles, of Glasgow, and Colonel A. L. Rives, of Virginia. FIFTH AVENUE -Ex-Senator Frank Hiscock, ex-Senator Warner Miller and the Marchioness de Pirar del Rio, of Havana. METROPOLE-Senator Michael F. Col-Havana. Hill.—Senator Cornelius R. Parsons, of Rochester. WINDSOR—Governor William McKinley, of Ohio; General C. D. Mac-

An they get posted buy the best Furniture for the least money at FLINT'S, 45 West 23d st.

Dougall, of Auburn, and George W. Smalley.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts. have taken gold medals against all brands.

Heal Estate, The Oranges, N. J., Specialty, EDW. P. HAMILTON & CO., 98 Broadway, N. Y. Office at Orange Station open Decoration Day, 39th.

MARRIED.

CONKLING-TRUSLOW-On Thesday, May 28, at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 783 St. Mark's-ave, Brooklyn, by the Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, Alice Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Truslow, to Henry Conkling, M. D.

Trusiow, to Henry Conking, M. D.

HOWE-COLLINS-On Tuesday, May 28, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parsons, fr., 246 West 76th-st., by the Rev. Henry M. Booth D. D. Annie Jowett, daughter of Mr. Charles J. Collins, and Walter Hutler Hows.
SALTUS-NOYES-On Wednesday, May 29, 1895, at St.,
Paul, Minn., by the Rev. John Paul Expert, D. D., assisted by the Rev. William Adams Brown, of NewYork, Eveleyn McCardy Noyes, daughter of Daniel Rogers Noyes, to Rollin Sanford Saltus, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Notices of marriages and deaths must be in-dersed with both name and address.

DIED.

CAMPHELL. On May 28, 1895 Mary J. Campbell, widow of the Rev. Gawn Campbell, M. D., aged 65 years. Tuneral services at her late residence, 422 West 44th-st., on Friday, May 31, at 1 p. m. DARLING-On Sunday, May 26, at his residence, No. 80 East 77th-st., William A. Darling, in the 78th year

DISTRIOW-At Old Bridge, N. J., on Tuesday, May 23, Dr. Stephen M. Disbrow, aged 48 years. Funeral from his late residence, Old Bridge, N. J., on Saturday, June I, on arrival of the 9:19 a. m. train from New-York.

from New-York.

EDWARDS—At Stenington, Conn., May 28. Catherine Agnes Edwards, daughter of the late Jonathan W. Edwards, of Hartford, Conn.

ESCHENHACH—At her residence, 452 Amsterdam-ave., Alice Roberts, wife of Edward Eschenhach, and daughter of Dr. N. 8. and Belle Roberts.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral service at the Presisterian Church, Amsterdam-ave., corner 80th-at. on Thursday, May 30, at 1 p. m. Interment at the convenience of the family. FITZ-In Boston, May 27, Eustace Cary Fitz, aged 6 years.

Funeral services at Commonwealth Avenue Baptiss
Church, Thursday, May 30, 2:30 p. m.
Burial private.
Friends kindly requested not to send flowers.
Friends kindly requested not to send flowers.

GERHER On Tuesday, May 28, at his residence, 105 West 78th-st. John Gerher, suddenly, after a short slieness in his 44th year.
Puneral private.

ness, in his 44th year.
Funeral private.
GOODWIN-At New-York City, on Monday, May 27, at p.30 p. m. Mary F. Goodwin.
Funeral from her late residence, 169 East 7ist-st., on Friday May 31, at 2 p. m.
HFGEMAN-At New-Utrecht, L. I., on Wednesday, May 20, 1815, Jennie Wright, eldest daughter of Elizabeth W. and the late Andrew Hegeman Puneral services will be held at her late residence, 18th-ave, and 80th-st., on Saturday, June 1, at 2:30 p. m.
MALKOLM-On May 27, Frank Medley Malcolm, only son of Margaret Nevins Van Dyck, of Frinceton, N. J., and the late Rev. Thomas L. Malcolm, D. D.
Services at his late residence, 4:434 Chesinut-st., Philadelphia, Thursday, May 30, 4 p. m.
MARTENS-At Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on Wednesday, Mag MARTENS At Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on Wednesday, Mag 29, John H. Martens, son of the late Gerl Martens, aged

34 years.
Funeral services at his late residence, No. 60 West 2d-et.,
Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on Friday, May 31, at 2 o'clock p. m., Carriages will be in waiting on arrival of the 1 o'clock train from Grand Central Depot, New-Haven R. R.
Interment private.

Purismi private. collers on Tuesday, May 28. Emile Moulton, wife of the late N. Fendicton Rosers, in the 65th year of her are uneral from St. James's Church, Hyde Park, New-York, WEST Entered into rest, at Plainfield, N. J., Tuesday marning, May 28, 1885, Elizabeth A., wife of Nichos-las W. West. eral services at her late residence, No. 15 Elm. ace, Plainfield, N. J., Friday, the 31st inst., at 3 mi.
atives and friends are respectfully invited without further notice.

WILLIAMS—At Orange, N. J., May 29, 1805, Leander Williams, aged 66 years.
Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at his late residence, No. 55 Hillyer-st., Orange, on Saturday, June 1, at 4 p. m. The Kensico Cemetery, office 16 East 421 St., to provide for the greatly increased number of visitors have secured additional train service. Their SUMMER TIME TABLE will be published June 2.

Hillside Cemetery, Beaut' d location among the Hodson Highlands. p particulars, address SANYORD R. KNAPP. See'y, p particulars, address SANYORD Peckshill, New-York.

Special Notices. Highest Award for Artificial Teeth at Work's Fair was granted DR HENRY F DEANE Dentity 454 Lexington ave., corner 45th-st. Specialty, Artificial Teeth, Expression restaired. Gas administered Telemento 38-8-48.

Where to Find Good Liquors.

Any place where Carl H. Schultr's MINERAL WATERS the Sold Good liquers and good waters always go to-

A .- A .- Get Raebuck's Window Screen Wire Cloth at Roebuck's, 172 Fulton-et.

Postoffice Notice.

Foreign malls for the west, ending June 1 will close (promptly in all cases) at this office as follows:

THURSDAY—At 5 a.m. for La Plata countries direct, per 8. Mashelyne; at 8 a.m. for Bermuda, per 8. Thirmonal; at 8 a.m. outpolementary 10-30 a.m.) for Europe, per 8. F. Hismarck, via Southampton and Hamburg, at 9-30 a.m. waspolementary 10-30 a.m.) for Central America texcept Costa Rical and South Familian most be directed "per Advance"; at 11 a.m. for Netherlands in direct per 8. s. Werkendam, via Amsterdam detrees must be directed "per Werkendam, via Amsterdam detrees for Verendam."

FRIBAY—At 6 a.m. for Santiago, Cuba, per 8. s. FRIBAY—At 6 a.m. for Santiago, Cuba, per 8. S. Wender and Colombia must be directed "per Ridaum"; at 0 a.m. (supplementary 11 a.m. for Foreign per 8. s. Colombia must be directed "per Ridaum"; at 0 a.m. (supplementary 11 a.m. for Foreign per 8. s. Colombia for the period of Para").

SATURIAL At 5 a.m. for France, Switzerland, Italy, Spath, Porticulat Aurica of Centrope, per 8. s. Langalm, Porticulat Aurica of Centrope, per 8. s. Campania, via Guerral detreet for the parts of Europe must be directed "per Emispin"; at 10 a.m. (supplementary 10-30 a.m.) for Europe, per 8. s. Campania, via Guerral detreet for the parts of Colombia editected "per Ethiopia"; at 10 a.m. (supplementary 10-30 a.m.) for Jamanca, Savanilla and Carthamentary 10-30 a.m. for Colombia detrees for Costa Rica, via Libr Postoffice Notice.